PREFACE.

The Coins and Autographs described in the ensuing pages are all the property of the estate of the late George W. Massamore, of Baltimore, Md., and are sold by order of his executor, Mr. George W. Harding. The dispersal of this collection will prove quite an opportunity for collectors to enrich their cabinets, and for the small dealers to buy lots and lower-priced coins.

The Autographs contain many of historical interest and value, and we trust will meet with merited appreciation.

Every coin and autograph is guaranteed genuine, and by this we wish collectors to understand that we hold ourselves responsible indefinitely. The enforcement of such terms as "Have settled with the owner," "Allowed you 10 days," "No return of money paid once it is bought," are not our ways of doing business. Our aim is to treat every one honestly and to please our patrons in every way in our power. Catalogues will be priced immediately after the sale for 50 cents (to accompany order.)

The attention of persons contemplating attending the sale is called to our change of auctioneers. The Freeman Building has been built by Mr. Samuel T. Freeman especially for his old-established business, and the Art Gallery is not only one of the finest rooms devoted to the business in the country, but the splendid 45° side lighting will be greatly appreciated by numismatists.

The Coins and Autographs will be on exhibition on day of sale from 9 A. M. to 1 P. M.

Second day sale—Autographs—will begin with lot 647.

Bids will be faithfully executed by the other regular dealers and ourselves for the usual 10 per cent. on the amount purchased. We would again urge intending bidders to send their bids in well in advance of day of sale.

I have received and thank you for the thoughts contained in your letter of this date & pray you to continue them as they may occur. I prefer receiving the sentiments of Officers in this way to Councils of War as I can digest every matter and thing at my leizure (sic), and act with more secrecy than it is possible in pursuance of a determination discovered by a Majority of votes & known to members & perusing as I observed before the thoughts of each Officer individually & comparing their reasoning with my own and forming conclusions which may be secret if necessary."

Should this be the case, & he is recommended to the State, I should be glad to receive its approbation as soon as may be that a commission may be obtained from the board of War—after which I shall keep him for some time doing duty in my guard—at least till he can be rigged & made somewhat acquainted with his duty as an officer.—I have not wrote on this subject to any but yourself, nor is it my wish that it should take place if it interfere's in the smallest degree with the rights, or reasonable expectation of any others—if he is appointed at all I could wish it were to one of the oldest & best Regiments.”

separated, folio, very fine, but apart on lower end of both sheets; easily repaired. Annapolis, 28 January, 1779. A most valuable historical confidential letter, relating to National finances—redeeming large emissions of paper money, scarcity of grain—"I fear there is a real—not merely a fictitious scarcity of grain: owing to the acts of monopolists," etc. "You may render more essential services to your country by attending closely to Committee business & in the way you mention, than by making long harangues in Congress, which answer no other purpose than wasting time, the most precious of all things. You will oblige me much by sending the Ministers letters & Memorials, & by continuing to communicate such transactions in Congress as you may be at liberty to mention & think safe to trust to letters pr post. The Cession of Florida to Spain deserves much consideration: what extention is to be given to the country to be ceded under that name? Will it comprehend East and West Florida?
Will not Spain join France & lend us money without such cession? I think she will, because by the treaty with France the whole of the Continent of N. A. ceded to ye British Crown by ye treaty of Paris, or so much thereof as we may be possessed at at ye conclusion of ye War, is given up & will be guaranteed by France; to these States because the reunion of these States with G. B. will be much more prejudicial & dangerous to Spain than ye example set to her colonies of a successful resistance crowned with Independence: because I have no doubt that Spain has already agreed to join France in the war & only waits to extort from us the proposed Cession or some other advantages; however you will do well to sound the Ministers on this head, without engaging for anything on your part. For my own part, I do not see any great objection to yielding to them East Florida provided they will conquer it: and I imagine the cession of East Florida would content them, as then their galloons would not, in case of War with us be so much endangered by our privateers from Augustine when in our possession," etc., etc. . . . "All the Carrolls settled in this State are staunch Whigs & have been so from the very commencement of these troubles." "I am sorry for the disaster to Gen. Howe; Lincoln I hope will be able to checke the progress of the enemy." "Please present my compliments to your brother Delegates." The only indication as to the person addressed.

703 Carroll, Charles, of Carrollton. A.L.S. 4to. Very fine. Doughoragen, 18th June, 1816. Relative to Capt. Jas. Craig having charge of his inebriate son and providing for his support—the agreement seems to have been the cause of trouble between them, as the letters in subsequent lot show.
